

Masters meet

Opening of an art exhibition

Thursday, December 3, Gallery Art and Soul

SUNIL Gavaskar the cricket maestro was quite late for the inauguration of the Mark of Masters – 2 exhibition. The reason for his delay melted the hearts of everyone listening in. He said, "My four-year-old granddaughter came to see me and I had to spend time with her. I asked her if she wanted to come for an art exhibition with me, she said 'no'. But she's promised to make a painting of a peacock for me and I'm awaiting it eagerly." Rahul Sharma was gracefully introducing his wife to one and all. And etchings artist Yashpal Chandrakar who was at the centre of the event got great applause.
