When three women get together for a good cause, there's bound to be fun. Geetu Hinduja, Bina Aziz and Zeba Kohli's three-day exhibition of artifacts made by children and women from NGOs across the country, saw many attend.

Sabina Chopra and Arti Surendranath exchanged pleasantries, while Bina and Brinda Chudasama-Miller bonded over ice-cream. Talat Aziz and Rajesh Kohli were present to support their wives. Shaina N C and Nisha Jamwal also dropped in to take a dekho, and caught up with one another. Papri Bose and Sunil Padwal made their presence felt — not at an art party this time! — and made the best of the evening.
